"WAR" TAXES ON AUTOS

In calling for repeal of wartime emergency taxes on automobiles and their operation, Arthur C. Butler, director of the National Highway Users Conference, points out that of all the wartime levies which were to have been repealed at the end of hostilities, these bear the most heavily on persons in the low income groups.

Mr. Butler finds it puzzling that all talk of eliminating or reducing federal excise taxes ignores these imposts on automobiles, gasoline, tires and spare parts. Automobiles are certainly no longer a luxury, and 58 per cent of the nation's autos are owned by families with incomes of less than $4,000 a year, according to the Federal Reserve Board.

Last year "temporary" federal excise taxes enacted during the war totaled $1,284,000,000. These were on top of regular payments of state, local automotive taxes.

Few persons are aware of these "taxes on hardship," as they are termed by the National Highway Users Conference, so successfully has their collection been hidden.

But these federal taxes on automobiles, which were to have terminated with the end of hostilities, add seven per cent to the cost of a new automobile—$100 in the case of the cheapest car—one and one-half cents a gallon to the price of gasoline, one and one-half cents to the cost of a quart of motor oil, five cents a pound to the cost of a tire, and five per cent to the cost of all parts and accessories.

State and local gasoline and automobile taxes are usually allocated to the improvement of highways. These federal "emergency" taxes go into the general fund, and there is no good reason why they should be imposed on automobiles.

IN DEFENSE OF MEN
Women's groups have won their first congressional victory in a 27-year crusade for an Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution. Unfortunately, the Senate, in passing an amendment to ban all legal discrimination against women, also attached an appalling rider which would deny equal rights to men. The amendment as passed reads in part:

"Equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex. . . . The provisions of this article shall not be construed to impair any rights, benefits, or exemptions, now or hereafter conferred by law upon persons of the female sex."

That is, no laws may be passed or enforced which discriminate against women, but laws which discriminate against men. The Senate was trying to appease women who have opposed the Equal Rights Amendment because, they feared, it might deprive women of certain legal privileges they now enjoy in many states. Among these privileges are minimum wages, maximum hours, dower rights, and alimony.

But in its appeasement the Senate went too far when it seeks to grant to women, while denying to men, special privileges.

costs from 1,400 to 2,200 kroner and requires 60 of the 180 ration coupons received for a year. A shirt costs 250 kroner and 20 coupons, shoes 900 kroner and 60 coupons. With a total monthly salary of 2,500 kroner, Richter would not have had the clothing needed to look presentable at the office were it not for the aid of the American Joint Distribution Committee in Prague.

He recalled that during the past two years he had twice received clothing for himself and his wife from the AJDC-supported Jewish community. This included a suit, a dress, underwear, stockings and shoes. The Richters also received children's clothing for Abram and a layette when Jacob was born.

On two occasions when medical bills upset the carefully figured Richter budget, the Jewish community organization gave him 1,000 kroner.

Concerts, the theatre, movies? Richter's thin face broke into an ironic smile. They could not afford such luxuries although both he and his wife used to be inveterate theatre-goers.

What few kroners they might have saved for recreation they spent to buy the two quarts of milk and the butter to which the children were entitled each month under the ration.

When he learned that since his departure from Prague, the Communist authorities had ordered the closing of the Joint Distribution Committee, Richter's face seemed for a moment more lined and grey than ever.

"Now it will be worse than ever before," he murmured, "I'm glad we decided to leave."

Aviation Films To Be Viewed; Models Flown

A long program of interesting aviation films will be shown at Wednesday's Aeromodelers meeting. The show will begin at 7:30 p. m. All persons interested in joining the Aeromodelers are invited to attend.

Sunday's favorable weather for model flying attracted a large number of the club members to Wilson field to fly various types of control line models. Several mid-gear models, powered with reciprocating engines with a cylinder bore of only 1/4-inch in diameter were flown by John Longbottom, "Dave" Johnson, and Robert Winslow. These models are of such a type that they are difficult to control especially in windy weather. Many of the members have been getting much better results with these tiny engines in small free flight models.

An exciting mid air collision occurred when two models were being flown in the same circle by Albert Abrams and William Rasmussen. Very little damage was done to either of the models since they were strongly constructed trainer type models.

A stunt exhibition was given by James VanSant, Jr., who performed such maneuvers as vertical figure eights, inverted flight, inside loops, and wingovers. These stunts are made possible by the use of two strong steel wires which terminate at a control device in the model, causing the control surfaces on the tail of the model to move. Some of these models are even equipped with operating wing flaps.

Sanction has been granted for the Aeromodelers' model contest to be held on May 21. This meet will go a long way towards promoting this hobby among the youth of Bristol. Much of the work of preparing this meet has already been begun, and builders in several model clubs in Bucks County have expressed their desire to compete. This affair is sponsored entirely by members of the Aeromodelers.

What you believe matters. Never sell out to the idea that what you believe does not make any difference. The current thought of our world affirms that it makes a great deal of difference in every field excepting religion. Right belief about science is stressed by those in technological fields. It makes a great deal of difference what theory of physics you subscribe to how far you will get in research. Right belief about politics is stressed. It makes a great deal of difference whether you believe in "Big brotherism." You have to have a right belief about these matters. You can not subscribe to them both.

Christianity has always affirmed that what you believe makes a great deal of difference. Your spiritual growth depends on it. We know that we cannot grow physically on a diet of arsenic and cyanide. But you would be surprised how many persons think that they can grow in spiritual stature on a diet of ideological cynicism.

For 2000 years Christianity has affirmed that faith in Christ crucified is the right belief.

"O most loving Father, Who wiltest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but our loss of Thee, and to cast all our care on thee, who carest for us, preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide us from the light of that love which is immortal, and which thou hast manifested to us in Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Miss Alice Burns, East Circle, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schofield, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Gillies, Sr., East Circle, were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George MacIver, Philadelphia. On Sunday John Gillies, Collingdale, spent the day with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Rathfon, of Mayfair, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Beaton, Lafayette street.

Perfecting Arrangements For Sports Night Here

Arrangements are being perfected for the "Sports Night" affair to be held in the Bristol High "gym" Saturday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

They are: Mrs. Georgette (Biggs) Quigley, Mrs. Mary (Yates) McLean, Mrs. Margaret (Phipps) Hart, Mrs. Francis (DeGregorio) Missenella, Mrs. Mary (Bell) Ryan, Mrs. Lillian (Bell) Frazier, the Misses Betty Gillies, Joan Stackhouse, Shirley Peet, Ann and Dorothy Polard.

Athletic director Harry McClister is still making efforts to secure the Trenton Catholic wrestling team to match the Bristol High wrestlers.

joying a unit on safety. They are busy making highway signs, traffic lights and safety pictures. One of the pictures depicts a busy intersection of a city with the policeman directing a flow of traffic. To add to their knowledge of safety, Joseph Seaders, the police representative of Bristol Township, made a visit to the school. In his talk on Safety he stressed the idea of looking in all directions before crossing the streets.

Arthur Krause has returned to school with his right arm still in a cast. Arthur had the misfortune of breaking his arm during the Christmas holidays.

Mabel Bowker, a fourth grade student of the Maple Shade School, has moved to Croydon and is now enrolled in the Croydon School.

Each Friday afternoon at 2:30 the regular meeting of the Room Council of Grade four, Maple Shade School, is called to order by the president, Joseph Trendler. The purpose of the meetings is to discuss the problems of school citizenship. The Council's Advisors, Russell Roggo, Joan Bauer, Marlene Allmandinger, and Anthony Quici were asked for their suggestions of features which need improvement. While this is a new activity in this grade, the children are responding well. They are frank to talk of their shortcomings and are trying to be fair and judicial in their punishment. Even at this grade level pupil government is in every way more desirable to a democratic way of living than the teacher-dictator method. "Sally" Lynch is the recording secretary.

As a culminating activity parents and friends of the second grade of the Edgely Primary School were invited to an exhibition on Eskimo Life, Friday afternoon. The children prepared for this exhibit by bringing in books, pictures, and stories on Eskimos. An Eskimo village was planned which later attracted much attention. Within the village were igloos made of papier-mache, small dolls dressed as Eskimos in fur parkas, a dog sled with its dog team and load of furs, kayaks, seals, polar bears and icebergs. Original drawings by the children were displayed on the bulletin board. Stories were written and illustrated by each child; these were later made into a booklet. The clay models of Eskimo animals, kayaks and sleds showed much individuality. Several Eskimo songs were learned and enjoyed, especially one with Eskimo words which delighted the children. Several exhibits on Eskimo life were loaned for the day by the Commercial Museum. These were enjoyed by all and much interest was created in the study of the crude, hand-made sleds, harpoons, knife, traps, fishhooks, whalebone, and articles of clothing. Thirty-six guests visited the exhibit during the lunch hour and afternoon session.

The fifth grade of the Edgely School is making an extensive study of the United States. This is being accomplished by making an imaginary tour by air. Several of the boys have personally constructed airplanes to make it more realistic. On the tour the class will visit all important cities and historical spots. A stereoscope is being used to bring the cities "nearer" to them. They are having lots of fun as well as learning much about their country.

Superintendent of Bristol schools Warren P. Snyder, and some members of the Bristol school directors board are in Harrisburg today and tomorrow, attending sessions for school directors.

A Roman banquet held in Bristol high school on Thursday evening was attended by Latin pupils costumed in toga or stola.

Some Roman customs were observed, such as eating with the fingers, as "slaves" waited upon them. Head "slaves" were Bernard Navetta and Robert Amadio, they escorting guests to their places. Marie Rich, Mary Lattanz, Philip Bianco, Louise Davis, Wayne Zarr and Dolores Bray, all eighth grade pupils, assisted as "slaves".

The menu consisted of: mushroom and deviled eggs in a tossed salad; roast chicken, beets, asparagus, cole slaw, celery, olives, fresh fruits, etc.

The entertainment included: Song, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Martha Berglund; saxophone solo, Leonard Pierre; dance, Janet Stephenson; song, "Stardust," Shirley Hall; flute solo, Maybeth Brown; song, "Why Do I Love You?" Leonore Pudner; solo, "Dessert Song," Frances Stallone; duet "Begin the Beguine," Lenore Purnzer and Maybeth Brown. The accompanist was Joyce Versprille. Miss Edwina is advisor of the Latin club.

H. S. WARRIORS TO PLAY GEORGE SCHOOL HERE

The Bristol High Warriors will play their next four games on their home floor. The quartet of games begin tonight with George School being the opposing team in varsity and junior varsity games.

Following George School, Bristol meets Bensalem, Trenton Catholic, and Pennsbury on the local wooden way.

The Lower Bucks league leaders have won seven games and lost four. They beat Morrisville last Friday night to take undisputed possession of first place in the circuit.

Bristol was at its best against Morrisville and Coach Jerry Bloom expects his lads to be the same way against George School tonight. Morrisville beat George School several weeks ago.

Friday night, George School came through with a 47-32 win over Hun School. "Bill" Loucks, stellar guard for the Brown and White, contributed 14 points in this victory. Others in the George School lineup are: Bullock, Buzz, Pearson, Franco, Ferreira, Rusch, Hanlon, and Zavitz.

It is most likely that Coach Bloom will have the following in his starting array: Joe Pindar, "Bill" Condit, Frank Rich, Frank Barbetta, and Marty Braam. Count on to see action are: "Vic" Conti, Charlie Rauch and Howard Grant.

Coach Harry McClister's starting lineup will most likely be composed of: Frank Lucenti and Charles Brady, forwards; Andy Accardi, center; Raul Steven and "Walt" Holden, guards.

Opening tap-off for the junior varsity game is 7:30 o'clock.

Nine members were lost during the past year, three by death, namely William J. Ellis, William M. Davis and Henry E. Strathman.

One new director was named last evening, Samuel S. Gray, Jr., Esq., he succeeding the late William M. Davis. Other directors are as follows: J. Stanley Lee, president; Stacy B. Brown, vice-president; Edward R. Barnsley, secretary; James Carnwath, Jr., treasurer; John J. Berry, Gage B. Ellis, David R. B. Robson, Harry W. VanHorn, William W. Viohahn.

Flowers were presented to Stacy B. Brown, who for 62 years has been affiliated with the company. There was exhibited an affidavit received from a Colorado sheriff, complete with state seal, testifying to the powers of detection on the part of Harry VanHorn back in 1913 in the Rocky Mountain area as well as in certain parts of eastern Pennsylvania.

The speaker of the evening was Prof. George J. Keller, teacher of fine arts at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Keller, a trainer of wild animals during the summer periods, has appeared with Barnum and Bailey circus, and at country fairs and other exhibitions with his lions, tigers, panthers, cheetahs, etc. He discards weapons when he enters the cages. The fine films in color, shown by him last evening, showed his prowess as an animal trainer; and the films also included many other animal "shots."

Falls Visitors To Return 'Down Under'

College. Preparing for a career in music she took further studies at Temple University, Phila., and taught after that in North Carolina. For the past year the Smith's daughter, Coralie has been attending Fallington public school.

The Smiths have quite a background of "Y" work. Mr. Smith has been in YMCA for 24 years, and is a graduate of the International YMCA College, Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Smith's uncle, Albert Bratton, was formerly general secretary of the old Cook YMCA Branch in Trenton, N. J. Another uncle, Dr. Fred Bratton, is an executive of the Springfield YMCA College. Another uncle, William Bratton, is on the general staff of the Los Angeles, Cal. YMCA. Mrs. Smith's brother, Paul Hartman, has been a "Y" executive for several years, serving at Pittsburgh, and later as director of physical education for the YMCA at Jerusalem. He is now national YMCA area executive for Ohio and West Virginia. Mrs. Smith's brother-in-law, H. Russell Rymer, is on the national council of the "Y" with headquarters at New York, N. Y.

Mr. Smith left Sydney early in December, flying west to Perth, then sailed from nearby Otranto on the "Fremantle" for London. He reached London January 9th, and when told there would be no ship reservations until next November decided to await for some passenger's possible cancellation. Two days later, on January 11th, he was able to leave on the "Mauretania," and had an extremely rough crossing. The family was reunited on January 18th.

These are three busy weeks for both Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the former has been speaking in Phila., Pa., Paterson, Florence, N. J., and other points; as has also his wife. They also have been visiting relatives in New York, N. Y., and Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Smith has been showing moving pictures of Australia to several groups.

Just before leaving Australia, Smith took part in the national elections which saw the Labor Party defeated after eight years of power. "Labor had been in office eight years," he says, "and the leaders were so cocksure of themselves that they gagged the opposition."

Bureaucracy was increasing, and it meant filling out more and more forms for the people.

The family states that butter and tea are still rationed in their country. The country is experiencing the British "austerity" program in patches. With efforts believed to increase soon to export more wheat, wool and dairy products, the austerity is expected to be more severe.

Australia has opened its doors to large numbers of European displaced persons during the past two years, Smith states. About half the population of 7½ million is in six capital cities. The country has been experiencing a heat wave, with temperatures on the north coast going to 107 and 130. Bush fires have consequently swept over 15,000 square miles of timber and crop land.

When the family reaches home the fall season will be starting there, although seasons are not as clearly defined as in the United States.

along the highway, and waited but a short time before three men approached the car.

The officers approached the trio and accused them of illegal hunting, but they denied the accusation. However, they had failed to hide the evidence — two shotguns, a fat 'coon and a pair of hunting dogs.

Parson Muggins finally admitted that he had gone astray, and told his story at the office of Justice of the Peace William Wrigley, of Edison. He, of course, was embarrassed, but more so when he was without funds to pay his fine and costs amounting to $58, for it meant his commitment to the Bucks County Prison for 58 days.

2 CARS DAMAGED

MORRISVILLE, Jan. 31 — Two automobiles were slightly damaged at 12:30 this morning in a crash on U. S. Route 13, three-quarters of a mile west of this borough. The drivers escaped injury, however. According to state police of Langhorne barracks, lights of a car driven by Anthony Geronimo, Bridge street, Trenton, N. J., are said to have blinded Robert J. Schmidt, Penn Valley road, Morrisville. The Schmidt car struck the Geronimo machine, and ran off the north side of the highway. Geronimo was travelling east and Schmidt west.
